Trish Crutcher, as Mrs. Patrick Campbell, and Loren Leiser as George Bernard Shaw, exchange their barbed wits in Avila's production of "Dear Liar". The play will be performed, February 13, 14, 20 and 21, in Goppert Theatre at 8:00 p.m.

Theatre season shows an impressive line-up of spring entertainment

By Scott Turley

The curtain is ready to go up on the spring theatre season here at Avila. The line-up of shows is an impressive one that will offer entertainment for all.

"Dear Liar", by Jerome Kilty will be the first main stage production. Directed by guest director David Stienberg, this is a biographical drama about 40 years of correspondence between writer George Bernard Shaw and Mrs. Patrick Campbell.

This will be presented in Goppert Theatre on February 13, 14, 20, and 21. Tickets are $4.00 for adults, $3.00 for students and senior citizens. All theatre productions are free to Avila students.

in April, the theatre department will present the Broadway musical, "The Fantasticks", in Goppert Theatre on April 3, 4, 10, and 11. On April 7 and 8, "Miss Julie" will be presented in the Actors Laboratory Theatre.

For more information on tickets and show times, call 942-8408.

"After the Rain", Feb. 17, 18, a science fiction drama

By Scott Turley

"After the Rain", a science fiction drama about the survivors of the second flood, will be performed Tuesday and Wednesday, February 17-18, in Actors Laboratory Theatre in O'Reilly Hall. Admission to the presentation is free, but seating is limited to 150.

"The play operates on several levels at the same time," commented Ron Schaumburg, director. "At its core, there's the story of a motley collection of refugees. They let themselves be led by Arthur, who uses the situation to his personal advantage, eventually turning himself into a god."

Playwright John Bowen has placed Arthur aboard a large raft adrift in a global sea. The "Crew" is made up of a pair of middle-aged women who claw each other to win Arthur's attention, a strong man with a tragic weakness, and a sea captain who spends much of his time lost, quite literally, in a fog. Disrupting Arthur's happy but mindless floating kindgom is a writer and his lover, a ballet dancer.

"It's a ship of fools, both lovable and despicable," Schaumburg said.

Bowen's satirical script has echoes of plays like Marat/

Sade, in which the actors are inmates of an asylum. "We shift in and out of realities," said the director, "until the audience can't help but become part of the action."

"The play is strange, but it's funny. For example, the raft that these people were rescued by is stocked with nothing but a breakfast cereal called 'Club.' Its makers wanted to prove that man could live by Glub alone."

"After the Rain" is science fiction without the hardware—a battle between well-meaning individuals who want to shape the future in their own images, twisted as those might be."

Twenty-five leadership positions open; campus spring elections, March 16-18

Twenty-five student leadership positions will be decided with the All-Campus Spring Elections March 16, 17 and 18. Voters will select Student Government Association (SGA) Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer and 16 Senators.

Elections will determine Student Union Board (SUB) Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and Secretary/Treasurer.

And three students will be chosen for the Student Activity Fee Board (SAFB).

Any eligible student may begin their election process by picking up a Nomination Petition from the Office of Student Life in Marian Centre.

SGA Rights

All students admitted and enrolled for credit at Avila College are members of SGA. The nineteen elected students make up the Student Council.

The Constitution of the Avila College SGA lists student rights and responsibilities.

SUB is responsible for the recommendation of programs to the Marian Centre professional staff and the planning, promotion, and production of these programs.

In the programming process SUB encourages self-directed activity, giving opportunity for self-growth.

SUB events planned for February...

February is packed with events for students, staff, faculty, and their guests to enjoy, sponsored by the Student Union Board.

Friday, February 13 at 7:00 and 9:30 p.m. in the Marian Centre Lounge will be the 1968 film version of Romeo and Juliet.

Italian director Franco Zeffirelli stunned the screen world when he cast two young unknowns to portray the star-crossed lovers in Romeo and Juliet, but it was a gamble that resulted in one of the most popular motion pictures of the time, winning international acclaim and four Academy Award nominations.

Shakespeare's classic romance came to stunning visual life in a modern, young person's interpretation, bringing new vitality and a fresh insight to the most durable love story ever written.

Shenandoah, a country/rock band will perform at the "dateless dance" at Ranch Mart Auditorium from 9:00 p.m. to Midnight on February 13. The auditorium is located at 3705 West 95th Street in Overland Park.

Shenandoah was organized in the summer of 1980, blending the musical skills of four individuals into a new dimension in progressive country and country/rock music.

The group began performing professionally in September, entertaining audiences with their unique sound. Many of the songs performed are written by members of the group.

Since September, Shenandoah's performances have included outdoor festivals, conventions, stage shows, night clubs, and country club engagements.

Members of the group are Sherman Galloway (Lead/Vocal), Jerry Davis (Rhythm/Vocal), Leslie Blythe (Bass/Vocal), and Bruce Fenderson (Drums).

M*A*S*H, starring Donald Sutherland, Elliott Gould, and Gary Burghoff will be showing Friday, February 20 at 7:00 and 9:00 p.m. in the Actors Laboratory Theatre, Lower O'Reilly.

This witty, uproariously funny movie by Robert Altman won an Oscar for Best Screenplay and became a smash TV series.

Set during the Korean War, the crew of surgical unit MASH 4077 clown and pull outrageous pranks to offset the horrors of war.

Also on February 20, make plans to bowl at the SUB Bowling Party at Red Bridge Lanes from 12:30 a.m. to 3:00 a.m.

AMA helps in preparing resume's

Many college students are experiencing the difficulties of preparing a good resume. Now, thanks to the Avila Chapter of the AMA, (American Marketing Association) plans are underway to make this somewhat dreaded task a bit easier.

Last year's successful seminar dealing with preparing an effective resume is back by popular demand. This seminar is only one of the many beneficial presentations scheduled by the Chapter for Avila students.

Other events tentatively scheduled trips to such firms as Farmland Industries and Southwestern Bell. Also on the agenda for 1981 are guest speakers from marketing related fields such as advertising and management.

Dates for these events will be posted.

Interested in attending these events? Or if you are interested in learning more about the Avila Chapter of the AMA, openings for officers and for members are still open. This club offers tremendous opportunities for college students such as establishing business contacts and gaining first-hand knowledge of the business world via field trips and seminars. The club is beneficial for students majoring in marketing or other fields of business offered by Avila College.

Obligations are minimal while rewards are plentiful. Besides, what better extra curricular activity is there to include on a resume?

Intramurals will also sponsor a Road Rally on Saturday, March 28 and Softball Tournament April 10, 11, and 12.

Open swimming will continue on Friday nights from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Red Bridge YMCA through March 27.

After paying it, some students may question where the Student Activity Fee ($20 for full-time students and $1 per credit hour for part-time students each semester) goes.

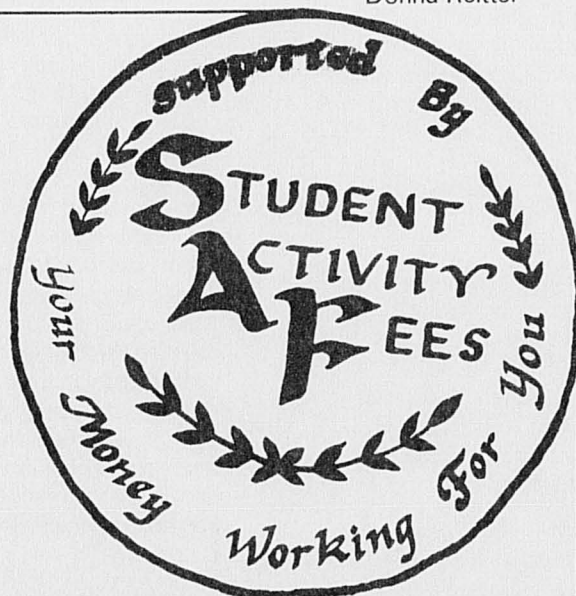

Student Activity Fee Board, an organization of students who supply input to the college on how the fee should be budgeted, has devised a way that will alleviate the curiosity some students may have.

This stamp, designed by a member of the Board, will be seen in the EXAMINER, Gredunza, on posters and flyers, and much more. Activities and services which are funded by the Fee will bear this stamp to inform curious students how their money is being spent.

Students wishing to satisfy their curiosity more on how their money is spent should watch the EXAMINER and Gredunza for information on how they may share their opinions on this subject to facilitate Fee Board in determining the Student Activity Fee budget for 1981-82. For more information, please contact Office of Student Life, Extension 227.

Avila Teacher Corps Project Contains several key elements

The Avila College Teacher Corps Project, which began in summer 1979, is now in its second year of operation. There are several key elements to the Project.

Collaboration—The Project is operated jointly with the Kansas City Missouri School District and the Kansas City Community. Four schools in the District, Westport Senior High, Westport Junior High, Faxon Elementary and Bancroft Elementary, are involved in the Project.

Policy Board—The project is guided by a collaborative Policy Board composed of nine persons—three College, three District, three community persons. The College representatives are Dean Richard Scott, Professor Dona Neuman, and Sister Barbara Moore.

Staff Development and Graduate Credit—Avila faculty, primarily from the Department of Education, work with teachers in the Project schools. Graduate credit courses are offered on site at the schools. During the fall courses were presented in Multi-Cultural Education and Diverse Learning Styles.

Internships—Four Avila graduate students are serving two-year internships leading to a Masters Degree in Education. The interns work everyday in Project schools and take courses on campus in the evening. The Avila students are Rosemary Riordan, Calvin Bibbs, Barbara Wulfers, and Aubrey White.

Avila Faculty Institute—During the late summer and fall, Teacher Corps worked with a committee representing faculty and staff for the purpose of planning and hosting faculty/staff conferences focusing on Avila's diverse student population.

A recent conference held January 8, 1981, provided an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to participate in a forum to discuss issues and concerns related to "non traditional" students—minorities, women, older students, and handicapped students.

Dr. James Boyer, professor at Kansas State University, was the guest presenter. Dr. Boyer is a national authority on Multi-Cultural Education.

The Teacher Corps Project is directed by Dr. David Wallace. Sister Marie Georgette, Chairperson of the Department of Education, is the Project's Program Development Specialist.

Team shows effort with only six players

By Mark Johnson

Like a scenario from David and Goliath the Avila College women's basketball team has found itself taking on opponents with two and three times as many players all season long.

Having only six players on their squad has cost the Avalanche games. A case in point was a recent game against Mid-America Nazarene when Avila finished the game with only two players left on the floor.

Avila took the early lead playing the running game and was out in front 22-18 at the half.

Midway through the second half Mid-America took the lead for the first time in the game. From that point on the lead changed hands eight times in the final minutes.

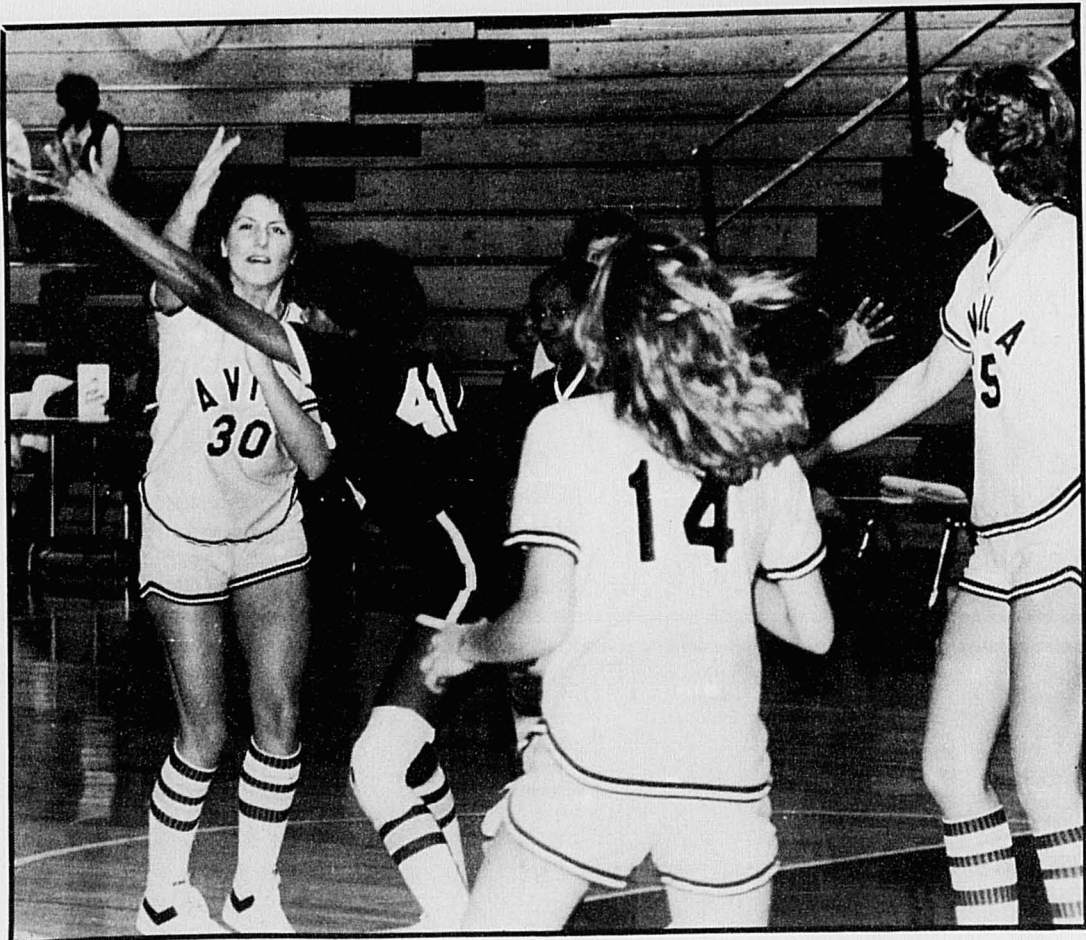

Susan Sulzer kept the Avalanche in the game with three baskets in the final three minutes, including the one that sent the game into overtime at 50-50.

It was in overtime that Avila got in trouble as they had four players foul out of the game. Outnumbered, the team lost 63-56.

Leading scorer for Avila was Darby Chambers with 21 points.

Once again Darby Chambers led the scoring with a 24 point performance in a 61-54 loss to the School of the Ozarks.

Her best was yet to come though as she poured in 38 points against Southwest Baptist. Not even that was enough though as Southwest won by twenty, 89-69. Avila played the final twelve minutes with only four players against a full court press.

Tammy Ostercamp, Susan Sulzer, and Cindy Northcraft, of Avila's Womens Basketball squad, show team effort, in one of their games played in Mabee Fieldhouse.

New year brings team six consecutive wins

For Bill Waris and his Avila basketball team, the new year could not have come any sooner. The 1980 portion of the season was climaxed with four straight losses, however, since the ringing in of the new year, the Avalanche have won six straight in convincing fashion. In the six consecutive wins, Avila's average margin of victory has been better than 11 points.

Of the six triumphs, the last two have been especially impressive since the Avalanche have been without the services of junior forward Mark Hatchett, an All-District performer a year ago.

Hatchett sprained an ankle in the win over William Jewell and was not expected back to rematch with Drury. The two wins include an outstanding team effort at Drury on Jan. 24 when the Avalanche defeated the Panthers for the first time ever 79-70.

Tuesday, Jan. 27, Avila rolled to a 77-67 win over Mid-America.

In the last six contests, swingman Baxter Jones has provided the offensive punch averaging 16.5 points per game while leading the team in rebounds in three of those games. Center Eric Talmadge has also been a key in the Avila attack averaging over nine rebounds during the current streak.

The balance of the offense has been showcased in the three outings when at least four men have scored in double figures in each game. Jan. 27, it was Orvstin Candler providing the fireworks with 21 points, including a 7-for-10 night from the field and a perfect 7-for-7 from the charity stripe.

Following a Jan. 29 contest in Mabee Fieldhouse against UMKC, the Avalanche hosted Evangel College then Drury for the second time in nine days.
